

GREAT IMPRESSIONISM FOR ASPIRING YOUNG ARTISTS™

SUMMER ART CAMPS 2008

Wall Recreation Department is offering 2 art camps this summer; a 4-day camp for children entering grades 1—6 & a 5-day camp for children entering grades 1—9.

The 4-day camp will teach students specific brushstrokes & layering techniques of the famous impressionists. It will also include basic illustration using pencils and oil crayons.

The 5-day camp will give students the opportunity to act in short, dramatic skits featuring the lives and works of the famous impressionists, post-impressionists and modern painters. Students will study and paint various works during the 1st 4 days of camp while on the last day they will display their works as they perform short skits that explain each movement.

Artist, instructor & playwright, Debra Stasiak is a certified teacher with 15 years experience and the originator of Great Impressionism for Aspiring Young Artists™.

4-DAY CAMP
